

ACCEPTABLE DRESS: Items of dress that are disruptive to the educational process will not be allowed. Students are expected to dress in a way that respects the educational process. The following details Lincoln's dress code policy:

YES

- Clothes that promote a positive, safe, and productive learning environment
- Clothes that cover the complete torso (shoulders to waist)
- Tops that fall comfortably to the belt line or buckle of pants
- Clothes that allow students to move comfortably and stretch in all directions without exposing undergarments or skin
- Clothes that allow students to focus on learning and promote a positive self-image.

NO

- Backs or midriffs showing (including open mesh or see-through clothing)
- Cleavage
- Under-garments or butts showing (male or female)
- Pajamas, slippers, or bedroom attire
- Advertising of/or promoting tobacco, alcohol, drugs, sex, cleavage, or violence
- Clothes that threaten or demean others
- Gang or gang-like dress will not be permitted on school grounds or school activities/events.
- Hats, head gear, or sunglasses
- Sagging pants (pants must be worn at hips or waist).
- Coats in the classroom
- Backpacks of any kind in the halls or classrooms during the school day
- Tears in clothing that expose too much skin

DRESS CODE VIOLATIONS

1st & 2nd Offense

1. Student warning and T-shirt, pants, or belt given to wear for the day
2. Parent notification. If necessary a change of clothing will be brought before student re-enters class. Inappropriate attire will be held in the office and returned to the student at the end of the day.

3rd & Subsequent

1. Student remains in ISS until parents arrive at school with change of clothes
2. Parent/student conference with administrator.